

Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into as of May 18, 2026 (the "Effective Date"), between Indigo Networks, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Indigo"), and Juniper Capital Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Juniper"). Indigo and Juniper are each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties."

1. Purpose

The Parties wish to discuss and evaluate a potential business relationship, including but not limited to investment, licensing, partnership, or other commercial arrangements (the "Purpose"). In furtherance of the Purpose, each Party (as the "Disclosing Party") may disclose to the other (as the "Receiving Party") information that is treated as Confidential Information under this Agreement.

2. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party (a) in writing or other tangible form, or (b) orally or visually, provided that, in the case of an oral or visual disclosure, the Disclosing Party identifies the information as confidential at the time of disclosure and confirms such designation in a writing delivered to the Receiving Party within thirty (30) days following the oral or visual disclosure. Confidential Information includes, by way of example and not limitation, business plans, financial information, technical data, product roadmaps, customer information, supplier information, marketing strategies, source code, and any analyses or notes prepared by the Receiving Party that reflect Confidential Information.

The Receiving Party's obligations under this Agreement do not apply to information that: (a) is publicly known through no act or omission of the Receiving Party; (b) was rightfully in the Receiving Party's possession prior to disclosure, without confidentiality obligations; (c) is rightfully received from a third party without restriction on disclosure; or (d) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Confidential Information.

3. Obligations of Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to: (a) hold the Confidential Information in confidence and use reasonable care to prevent its unauthorized use, disclosure, or duplication; (b) use the Confidential Information only for the Purpose; and (c) take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Confidential Information from theft, loss, or unauthorized access, including the use of encryption and access controls consistent with the Receiving Party's information-security policies.

4. Permitted Disclosures

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information to its employees, professional advisors, and independent contractors who (a) have a legitimate need to know such information for the Purpose, and (b) are bound by written confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those of this Agreement. Independent contractors must be retained under a written agreement that includes confidentiality terms consistent with this Agreement, and the Receiving Party shall be responsible for any breach by such contractors.

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if and to the extent required by law, subpoena, or other legal process, provided that the Receiving Party (a) promptly notifies the Disclosing Party (to the extent legally permitted), (b) furnishes only the information legally required, and (c) cooperates reasonably with any effort by the Disclosing Party to obtain a protective order or other confidential treatment.

5. Term and Survival

This Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of four (4) years from the Effective Date (the "Term"). Notwithstanding expiration or termination of the Term:

- (a) the Receiving Party's obligations with respect to Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret under applicable law shall continue indefinitely, for so long as such information continues to qualify as a trade secret; and
- (b) the Receiving Party's obligations with respect to all other Confidential Information shall continue for a period of two (2) years following expiration or termination of the Term.

6. Return or Destruction

Upon written request of the Disclosing Party at any time, or promptly following expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall, at its option, either return or destroy all Confidential Information in its possession or control, including all copies, extracts, and derivative materials, and certify such return or destruction in writing. The Receiving Party may retain Confidential Information that is stored on routine electronic backup systems, subject to continuing confidentiality obligations.

7. Equitable Relief

The Parties acknowledge that breach or threatened breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages would be inadequate, and that the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to seek temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief (without the necessity of posting bond), in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity.

8. Governing Law and Forum

This Agreement is governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Wilmington, Delaware for the resolution of any dispute arising hereunder.

9. Miscellaneous

No License or Other Rights. Nothing in this Agreement grants, by license, estoppel, or otherwise, any rights to any intellectual property of the Disclosing Party.

Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the Parties regarding its subject matter. It supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings and may be modified only by a writing signed by authorized representatives of both Parties.

Severability. If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and via electronic signature, each of which shall be deemed an original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the Effective Date.
